SUMMARY

We are writing to inform Your Honor that Mr. Ciaccio was prescribed medicinal marijuana on January 21, 2022, for chronic pain of visceral origin, opioid use disorder, post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and chronic pain related to musculoskeletal disorders. The prescription was issued by Alfred D. Kulik, M.D, located in Fort Lee, New Jersey. According to his presentence report, Mr. Ciaccio was involved in a motorcycle accident in September 2019 and “suffered catastrophic brain and spinal injuries.” He is paralyzed from the waist down and will not likely recover. He currently resides in a nursing facility, as he requires full-time care.

Mr. Ciaccio does have a history of opioid addiction and is currently engaged in narcotics anonymous and outpatient substance abuse treatment at Oaks Center in Montclair, New Jersey. He did admit to marijuana use on March 11, 2022. Mr. Ciaccio is seeking the Court’s permission to use his medicinal marijuana card.

Respectfully submitted,
